

2009 All Hands Summer Workshop

August 2nd – August 7th, 2009

New York City, New York

St. John's University Campus

101 Murray Street, New York City, New York

You cannot afford to miss the 2009 MIRTHE Summer Workshop!

This fun workshop gives graduate and undergraduate students, REU students, high school students, high school teachers, post-docs, and other researchers a chance to present their research work.

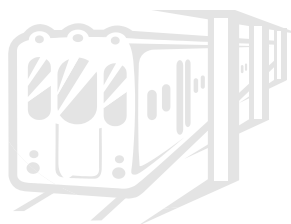

Student abstracts are due Friday, July 24th.

“Industry Day” allows the students to interact, socialize and network with our industrial and government partners.

Students stay at the St. John's University dorms with 24hour security.

Staff/Faculty/Guests stay at the Ritz Carlton-Battery Park – 2 West Street, NYC.

Experience New York City – the city that never sleeps!
